CLOSE FINISHES AT HARLEM.

The continued intense heat is beginning to have an effect on the attendance at the races and yesterday Harlem entertained the smallest crowd of the meeting.

There was no special attraction on the program other than a steeplechase, and it seemed to be a foregone conclusion that Globe II. would win this with ease, but there was a surprise in store for those that take a fancy to the jumping game in the way of a close finish and a hotly contested race throughout. Globe II. came out the victor in the steeplechase, but he only won by a nose after the hardest drive through the stretch ever before seen at Harlem in a race of this kind. Globe II. was an odd-on favorite, despite his heavy impost of 165 pounds, and was backed with confidence by the talent at about 7 to 10, and many a case of heart disease was imminent before the judges hung the numbers out. Mr. Brenock's gelding has had no less than four bruising races over the sticks within a week and is perhaps becoming a trifle stale, and that accounts for Reno, who was second, being so close to him at the finish. Reno went away in front over the first obstruction and was the pacemaker throughout, leading all the way by from two to five lengths. Eggerson rated Globe II. along in third position until the ninth fence, where he made his move, and at the last jump was lapped on Reno. The pair came into the stretch close together and for about a quarter of a mile had it nip and tuck. Globe II. was tired enough to lie down, but ran gamely to the very end.

A peculiar thing happened in the race which probably was the cause of making Globe II. win. Eggerson lost his whip at one of the jumps and was compelled to hand ride the gelding to the best of his knowledge when the pinch came. Considering the tired condition the gelding was in this was probably the best thing that could have happened for had he been struck with the whip he might have swerved and committed a foul.

There were two accidents in the fifth race which created a sensation in the grandstand and were the cause of several women fainting. St. Bluff, with E. Morgan up, got into a jam shortly after the start and took an ugly fall. This, however, happened on the backstretch and did not seem to be so startling as was the accident that befell Telephone Girl in the stretch directly in front of the crowded part of the grandstand. The filly started through on the inside and for an instant appeared to have a winning chance, but all of a sudden there was a general mix-up and down went Telephone Girl, turning a complete somersault and rolling all over jockey Tally. It was a shocking thing to look at the boy and horse all in a tangle, and it hardly seemed possible that Tally would escape alive. Luck was with him, however, and after being carried to the jockeys' room on a stretcher he revived and was up and around before the last race was run. Morgan also escaped unharmed. After all the falling and interfering Edith Q. proved to be the luckiest one of the bunch and won by a nose from Rega.

The mile and three furlong race went to Admetus, who should have won off by himself, but Master Tommy Knight got gay in the stretch and in his effort to draw the finish line almost threw the race away in favor of Fox Bard who finished with a tremendous rush.

Satin Coat and Propeller had a ding dong finish in the initial three-quarters of a mile two-year-old race, the former getting the decision simply through the action of the nod.

The fourth race was "peaches and cream" for Tayon, who was excellently handled by H.

Stuart, and Dissolute, despite a bad ride, carried off the sixth event.

Jockey Bassinger has been suspended for the rest of the meeting by the Harlem judges for "rough riding." Three individual complaints were registered against Bassinger in the last four days for "Roosevelt" tactics, and although Bassinger was warned by the judges he continued his rough work.

In anticipation of a large attendance to-day, Business Manager Miers has arranged for extra trains on all transportation lines leading to Harlem.

Hereafter the positions of the horses at the post at Harlem will correspond to the numbers on the program, number one taking the rail.

It has been decided by the Harlem management to place bulletin boards in the grandstand and betting ring. These boards will have painted upon them the names of the horses, weights which they will carry and the names of the jockeys who will ride them.

Tulla Fonso will be barred in the betting to-day in the fifth race at Harlem.

RACING AT ST. LOUIS.

The sport this season has proven more popular, perhaps, than in any previous year. The general era of prosperity, of course, has had much to do with this, but the racing has been singularly free from scandal. Of course there have been troubles of one sort or another, but Judge Murphy showed early in the meeting that he intended to manage his affairs with a tight rein and the lessons of the early days have not been lost. Punishment for anything out of the way has been severe, if not always prompt, and the general effect has been wholesome. The result is easily seen in the attendance. Despite the street car strike and the fact that almost all of the most attractive stakes were run either in bad weather or over a bad track, the average attendance has been probably some ten per cent in excess of that of last year, if not more. The ring has been much better patronized by the bookies and, all in all, neither President Aull nor Secretary Murphy has anything in the past two months to cause regret.

One would have thought last Saturday was a Derby day at the Fair Grounds to judge by the size of the crowd. The attendance was quite remarkable, but it was overshadowed by the business in the ring. Nineteen books cut on in the big ring, as many as were on for any of the biggest stakes of last season, and there seemed a good enough play to keep them all busy. Racing is truly the leading sport in this city, as well as elsewhere in the country.—St. Louis Sporting News.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club was held Wednesday morning, August Belmont, James Galway, F. R. Hitchcock and Andrew Miller were present. James Galway was appointed steward to represent the Jockey Club at the Coney Island Jockey Club autumn meeting.

On the recommendation of the stewards of the Brighton Beach Racing Association the suspension of "Clem" Jenkins, the jockey, was continued indefinitely.

On the recommendation of the executive committee of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association the following horses were reinstated for steeplechase and hurdle races: Ben Bolt, Lady Linden, Jimmy James, Musketeer, Hopeful and Bookie.

The treasurer was authorized to pay the bills for burial expenses of Clark Shaw, the trainer, and Tony Brown, the exercise boy, amounting

Time, 12, 24, 48, 1:01, 1:13.

Winner—B. c. by His Highness—Alhada. Went to post at 1:37. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Hesper was easily the best and was drawing away at the end, but O'Connor had to ride him hard to get to the front in the stretch. Tartar showed a lot of speed today and for a time appeared likely to win, but tired badly in the last sixteenth. Shaw's riding of Elfin Conig was not brilliant, but he would have been second in the next stride. Elsie Barnes ran a splendid race. She was off well, but was interfered with and knocked back to seventh place, and closed strongly from the head of the stretch home and would have been a contender but for the interference. Uncle Bill and Candia both showed early speed but tired. Hesper, entered to be sold for $500, was bid up to $2,000 by the owner of Tartar and bought in. Miss Hanover was given an easy race.

Scratched—The Outcast, 108; (15701) Latch Key, 108; 19101 Teucer, 108; 19887 Cupidity, 105; 19240 Potente, 103; 19713 Gala Day, 102.

Hesper, place, out. Tartar, place, 15 to 1; show, 6 to 1. Elfin Conig, show, 7 to 10. Miss Hanover, place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Tenny—Sly Nun. Went to post at 2:07. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won handily; second the same. This was not a true run race, as there was considerable interference. Cherished escaped all of it, was well ridden and was doing her best at the end. Guess Work, off last, closed a lot of ground and might have won with an even break. Prima II. was badly interfered with and knocked back to seventh place and closed strongly in the stretch. Luck was poorly ridden and raced into exhaustion in the first part of the race and then tried to run out at the head of the stretch and ought to have been third. Michaels could not do justice to Quite Right, allowing her to swerve in the stretch.

Scratched—19859 Animosity, 100. Cherished, place, evens; show, 2 to 5. Guess Work, place, 6 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Prima II., show, 2 to 1.

*Coupled in betting. †Added starter. Winner—Ch. c. by Alb—Bonnie Ola. Went to post at 2:40. Off at the first break to a bad start. Won driving; second the same. Bonnibert was doing his best and ran as if his last race had improved him. Turner rode him well and saved him for the finish. Alard Scheck ran his race. He appeared like the winner until the last few strides. The Parader, off last, ran a good race and might have won but for his start. He was closing strongly at the finish. Had Clawson gone on strongly with Princess Pepper she might have been in the money. She ran well for five furlongs and then tired. Yelp was outrun all the way. Tuskarosa showed speed for a quarter and then tired. The stable declared to win with him.

Scratched—18585 Irritable, 126; 19824 Lady Schorr, 119; 19824 Termless, 114; 19752 King Pepper, 108.

Bonnibert, place, 6 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Alard Scheck, place, 6 to 5; show, 2 to 5. The Parader, place, out.

Winner—B. c. by St. Florian—Serenie. Went to post at 3:09. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving. Peaceful was lucky, was given a good careful ride by Burns and barely managed to last long enough. Anthracite showed much improvement over her last race, faltered on the far turn but came strongly in the stretch and would have won in the next stride. First Whip was unlucky, he was best but was shut out twice and lost ground in the stretch by a wide turn. King Bramble was possibly reserved for another day. Shaw sat still on him to the stretch and then made a bluff at whipping. MacLeod of Dare ran well to the stretch. Laverock is improving.

Peaceful, place, 24 to 1; show, evens. Anthracite, place, 8 to 1; show, 2 to 1. First Whip, place, 4 to 5; show, out. King Bramble, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. MacLeod of Dare, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

A. J. Joyner was at the Rancocas Stock Farm on Sunday and saw Parole roaming about in the yearling pasture. He says the old gelding looks wonderfully well, considering his great age, and he spends his time in herding up the yearlings and keeping the ugly tempered ones away from the others. Parole is now twenty-seven years old.—New York Sun.

J. Donovan has purchased Hansborough, a three-year-old chestnut gelding by Hanover—Philura from L. Elmore for $800. He expects to win him out on the Canadian circuit.

Winner—Br. c, by Badge—Mattie Rapture.
Went to post at 2:15. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won in a long drive of two; third and fourth were doing their best. Satin Coat ran true to form and has the making of a good youngster. He was under terrific pressure through the last three furlongs and stood it like a racehorse should. Propeller had no excuses. He was away well and was well ridden. Forkford quit badly in the stretch after showing a lot of early speed. Hanswurst ran a fair race and Icení a bad one. The latter seems to be of little account.
Satin Coat, place, 2½ to 1; show, evens. Propeller, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. The entry, show, 1 to 2. Icení, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. g, by King Alfonso—Joppa.
Went to post at 2:50. At post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won in a drive; second and third were doing their best. Admetus should have won off by himself. The gelding was running well in hand below the eighth post, and Knight proceeded to take matters easily. This almost cost him the race, as when Knight let up on Admetus the gelding began to stop and Fox Bard coming with a rush almost nipped him. The latter stopped and came again in the stretch. Barton ran a fair race. The Bobby made up much ground in the last three furlongs. When Hosi stopped he stopped all over. Judge Denny will not do at present. Flick, who rode Vincennes, seemed to sulk, and was more of a handicap than a help to the gelding.
Corrected weights—Admetus, 111.
Admetus, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Fox Bard, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Barton, show, evens. Judge Denny, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Br. g, by Little Minch—Gwendoline.
Went to post at 3:30. Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving and staggering; second the same. Globe II. ran a grand race under his heavy impost. He was out to the last ounce and barely got up in time. Eggerson lost his whip at some time during the journey and it was well that he did for the horse was doing his best all through the stretch and hand riding was of more use than the whip would have been. Reno fenced well, showed plenty of speed, and ran a good race. Last Past made a strong bid at the head of the stretch but hung at the end.
Globe II., place, out. Reno, place, evens; show, out. Last Past, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Colonel Weightman, place, 2 to 1; show, out.

Winner—Br. c, by Lissak—Caroline Hamilton.
Went to post at 4:15. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second third were driving to the limit. Tayon was the best and best ridden and came away on call in the stretch. He is a handy selling plater. La Princessa broke fully in her stride and ran her very best race. Mark her for early action if it becomes muddy. ABE Furst, away poorly, made up much ground and finished stoutly under pressure. Olekma quit at the end. Crosby was away poorly, had a rough journey and ran a good race. Lamity showed some speed. Tame Irishman seems to be considerable of a counterfeiter.
Scratched—19843 Euterpe, 104; 13213 Dorette, 104; 19840 Troubaline, 97; 19805 Brown Vail, 104; 19805 Josephine B., 104.

Overweights—Contractor Lynch, 4 pounds; Tame Irishman, 4.

Winner—B. f, by Fabulous—Wicket.
Went to post at 4:50. Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving to the limit; second, third and fourth were under keen pressure. Edith Q. ran a cracking good race, coming with a terrific rush at the end. Rega perhaps would have won with a stronger rider up. Bradford was of little help to the filly at the end. Rega crowded Telephone Girl in the stretch causing the latter to get an ugly looking fall. Henry Burt seemed all over a winner at the head of the stretch but hung at the end and was also interfered with by Rega. Oscar showed speed but was short and tired in the last hundred yards. Invictus was there with a sharp turn of speed. St. Bluff got into a jam shortly after the start and fell, causing much interference.
Scratched—(1974) Lake View Belle, 103.

Edith Q., place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Rega, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Henry Burt, show, evens. Oscar, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. c, by Bramble—Lucy Adelaide.

Went to post at 5:25. At post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won in a drive; second, third and fourth were driving also. Dissolute was much the best, and despite a bad ride managed to win. He is a good game colt. Vain recovered his speed suddenly and made a good showing, but found the route to far. Frangible came with a terrific rush at the end. Goldone was right there all the way and is about ready. The others were beaten off.

Scratched—15698 Pink Jacket, 104; 19806 Maharajah 108; 19879 Irish Jewel, 104.

Time, 124, 24, 49, 1:02, 1:16.

Winner—Ch. f, by St. Julien—Emma Primrose.

Went to post at 2:33. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second the same. Seething was well handled and ran a good race. She came fast and strongly through the stretch, winning in the final stride. Frenchie also ran well and with a stronger finisher up would have won. Margaret F. showed to the stretch but lost ground in making a wide turn and suffered from bad riding. Harry Pulliam ran a poor race and can do better. Scorpolette got off badly.

Seething, place, 4 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Frenchie, place, 3 to 1; show, evens. Margaret F., show, 1 to 3.

19922 SECOND RACE—6 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. g, by Free Knight—Mollie F.

Went to post at 3:06. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second all out. W. J. Baker showed sudden improvement, was well rated, and his closing run was made at the right moment. The Barrister weakened in the last sixteenth and did not run his race. Randazzo did his best. Eleanor Holmes showed improvement. Colonel Gay ran a bad race.

Scratched—19884 El Ghor, 103; 8873 Revenue, 103.

Overweights—Eleanor Holmes, 2 pounds.

W. J. Baker, place, 2 to 1; show, 4 to 5. The Barrister, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Randazzo, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. c, by Getaway—Piazza.

Went to post at 3:35. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Go Out was much the best. He ran under restraint to the eighth post when he came away easily. Tom Gilmore was easily second best and finished stoutly. It was a very tight fit between Marie G. Brown and Kid McCoy for third place, the former prevailing in the last stride.

Go Out, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Tom Gilmore, place, 7 to 10; show, out. Marie G. Brown, place, 7 to 10; show, out.

Winner—Ch. h, by Glenelg—Keepsake.

Went to post at 4:05. At post 9 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. Lord Neville was much the best at the weights and fairly romped in from the head of the stretch home. Eugenia Wickes was speedy and ran her race. Horn ran a good race and finished strongly. Apple Jack's race was a decided reversal of form and the judges will hereafter refuse his entry.

Scratched—19850 Miss Verne, 99; 19845 Ruby Riley, 99; 19712 Lady Curzon, 98; 19850 Kindred, 97. Lord Neville, place, 1 to 3; show, out. Eugenia Wickes, place, 9 to 10; show, out. Horn, show, 20 to 1. Apple Jack, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

Winner—Ch. g, by Trafalgar—Lucy Lewis.

Went to post at 4:40. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won pulling up; second driving. Charley O'Brien was a good colt today and was never extended at any point in the race. Ida Ledford showed improvement but was all out to beat Hottentot. The latter ran to his best form. Bohul sulked while going down the backstretch.

Scratched—19457 Admiral Schley, 112.

Charley O'Brien, place, show, out. Ida Ledford, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Hottentot, show, 1 to 2. Bohul, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Br. h. by Badge—Actress.
Went to post at 3:25. Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving; second the same. Possum was well ridden by Miller who stole up on the inside suddenly and won in a furious drive. The boy on Bequeath went to the front with his mount under restraint and seemed to be in a trance in the stretch. He should have won sure. Slasher ran a much improved race. Flammarian was cut off near the finish when she was closing very fast.

Scratched—(19838) Megs, 107.

Winner—B. c. by Knight of Ellerslie—Banishment.
Went to post at 3:50. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. The first five ran in a bunch for the first six furlongs and were fighting it out hard at the end. Expelled barely showed his nose in front at the finish. Robertson, on Junaetta, turned wide into the stretch, losing the race by doing so. Miller rode a good race on Numberland. He was cut off in the stretch. Nettie Regent is rounding to and will do soon. She ran a good race.

Overweights—Estill, 2 pounds.
Expelled, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Junaetta, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Northumberland, show, evens.

Time, 25, 50, 1:15, 1:43, 1:55.

Winner—Ch. c. by Donatello—Lady Rossington.
Went to post at 4:20. Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving; second easily. Outburst ran a good race, but only lasted long enough, as Joe Gammage was coming strongly at the finish. Ellsmere would have been closer up if he had a stronger rider up. Olive Order tired and stopped badly at the finish.

Scratched—19815 George B. Cox, 110; 19902 Covington Ky., 107.
Outburst, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Joe Gammage, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Ellsmere, show, 4 to 5. Jim Conway, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

19920 SIXTH RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $250. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. g. by Coriolanus—Freddie.
Went to post at 4:45. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Flop trailed along until the stretch was reached, where he came away with a rush. Ed Roth showed plenty of speed today and ran a good race. Earl Fonso was slow to get on his stride, but finished strongly. Tenole was cut off and knocked out of the race. Flora Daniels tired and quit badly.

Scratched—(19765) Donsterswivel, 112; 19765 Melody, 107; (19726) Insurrection, 100.

Time, 23, 48, 1:14.

Winner—Ch. m. by Al Farrow—Fanny Gaines.
Went to post at 2:49. At post 11 minutes. Start fair. Won all out; second handily. Miss Al Farrow came through fast on the rail and fought it out closely with Salvado. She only got up in the last few strides. Salvado hung when it came to a drive. Rey Salazar, as usual, quit when strongly challenged. McQuade made his run too soon. Descubridora showed early speed. Deist was as good as left.

Overweights—Salvado, 14 pounds.
Miss Al Farrow, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Salvado, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Rey Salazar, show, evens.

Time, 24, 49, 1:09.

Winner—B. c. by Sir Modred—Cloister.
Went to post at 3:34. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second all out. Siroister was much the best. Coburn had him under a pull for the first half and he went to the front without an effort when he let him down and won drawing away. Virginia T. and Prince of Song made a close finish. The latter was coming the stronger of the pair at the end and would have been second in a few more strides. Tempt showed much early speed and got away running but almost stopped to a walk. Medora Cheatham was green at the post and as good as left.

Overweights—Prince of Song, 14 pounds; Rose Bird, 11; Medora Cheatham, 11.
Siroister, place, evens; show, 2 to 5. Virginia T., place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Prince of Song, show, 2 to 3. Tempt, place, 3 to 5; show, out.
